

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING
AT THE OFFICE OF THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL, 115 N. 3rd St.
BY HARVEY, HUGHES & CO.
The Democrat is served by the carriers to their respective districts in the city of Louisville and in the surrounding cities, for FIFTY CENTS PER WEEK, payable weekly to the carriers only by whom delivered.
PATRONS FOR MAILING—Sixty cents per month;
$5.00 for six months, and $10.00 for one year—always in advance.
NO PAPER SENT OUT OF THE OFFICE
UNLESS THE PAID FOR.
ADVERTISEMENTS—Ten cents per line (space type for first insertion; five cents per line for subsequent insertions).

VOL. XXIV.

LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 3, 1868.

NO. 253.

CITY ITEMS.

To the Ladies!

Through the liberality of the public,
I take pleasure in saying to my patrons that my business has increased to such an extent that I have found it necessary to enlarge my Dress and Cloak-making departments to meet the demands of my customers. In returning my sincere thanks for the favors of the past, I respectfully beg leave to inform the Ladies that I am now fully prepared to meet all orders promptly, and warrant a neat and comfortable fit. The working department is conducted by an accomplished and experienced tailor,
who was, for a number of years, superintendent in the mammoth house of Deidrich & Co., the largest ladies' dressmaking establishment in Berlin, Prussia. Ladies can rest assured, on leaving their orders, that they will be promptly filled, and no pains will be spared to give entire satisfaction.

My stock of goods for the spring and summer trade is very large, and comprises all the latest American and European styles. I have on hand a large assortment of fine lace and embroidery, which I desire to close out, in order to devote my whole attention to cloak and dress making. They will be sold at very low prices.

DORA SCHULZ,
ap28 Sult Fourth street.

New Dry Goods

Just received from New York, consisting of large lots of new prints at 12 1/2c, 15c, and the best lot of choice dress goods, heavy garments, fine black rep silk for saques at 22
to 65 per yard, and a general variety of all kinds of new dry goods for sale cheap this week at KINSELA & HAYDON'S.
Dry goods store, the second dry goods house
below Preston street, on Market. may 3d

French China Tea Sets

A large assortment of French China Palace,
Fourth and Green streets.

Where

Can you save 25 cents on all groceries? At German's Cheap Grocery, corner Eleventh and Green street.
as Forty-five thousand dollars worth of dry goods, just received and for sale very cheap, at THOS. MSHANE'S,
may 3d 141 Market, 3 doors below Preston.

Miss Dora Schulz

In reply to the intimation contained in the Courier some days since, to the effect that she had adopted the French system of having the measuring and fitting in her establishment done by male tailors,
and the public that, though she does employ males in her work-
rooms, she attends herself to the measuring and fitting department. With her present facilities she is prepared to execute all descriptions of work in the line of her business in the highest style of art and in the latest fashion.

ap28 DuSs

Flower Vases

A large variety at Gay's China Palace,
Fourth and Green streets.
as Fifty pieces carpet, at 30c, 40c, 50c, 60c
and 75c per yard, at THOS. MSHANE'S,
may 3d 141 Market, 3 doors below Preston.

Gentlemen's furnishing goods

at Walcott & Warner's, opposite National Hotel, all kinds of gentlemen's furnishing goods. may 3d

See advertisement of portable horse

power steam engine for sale, under appropriate heading.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Mr. Jesse B. Henry Shepard, the Celebrated Male Soprano Soloist.
This great musical prodigy, who is only 19
years of age, has been astounding the people of St. Louis and Memphis with his wonderful and instrumental power. He will give one grand concert in Masonic Temple on Wednesday night, the 4th inst. Words fail to give an idea of the sweetness, purity, execution of his voice. It must be heard to be believed. His voice is a rare and round and full, and can master the most difficult music. The scale of his voice runs to high (E flat), which is as high as Jennie Lind sang. He created a great sensation wherever he appeared, and has been everywhere known in the category of music. The lovers of music will avail themselves of the opportunity, and listen to what can be heard but once in a life time.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.

At Walcott & Warner's, 60 Fourth street, west
side. may 3d

Lease of John Cross & Co.'s Store at

on Monday morning, May 4th, 1868, at 10
o'clock, will sell the lease of the storehouse
now occupied by John Cross & Co., on Main street, between Seventh and Eighth streets,
at public auction, to the highest bidder. Sale
positive and peremptory to close the partnership.
Terms as sale.

SHYMAN P. WHALEY, Auctioneer.

Cheapest Groceries

In the city, at the lowest prices, at Green's stores. Groceries warranted and delivered free.
as Forty-three pieces (yard wide) of red
and white checked mulling, at
may 3d 141 Market, 3 doors below Preston.

Good cloth hats for one dollar; felt hats

for one dollar; fine French hats at four dollars;
new style straw hats at one dollar; year's style
twenty-five per cent. less than cost, at Jas.
M. Laid's, 115 Main street, between Third and Fourth. may 3d

Every body go to Laid's to-day and get

a new hat, and see how modestly we can sell them; 115 Main street, between Third and Fourth. may 3d

A silk hat for $5.00 at Laid's, 115 Main street, between Third and Fourth. may 3d

A. J. Spurrier,

House and sign painter, 55 Fourth street,
corner of Main. may 3d

Shoes, Shoes.

I have one of the finest and best selections
of ladies' leather and lasting goods on hand;
most of them are of home manufacture, and
first-rate quality, at the liberal prices.
CARL EIDMAN,
No. 116 Grayson st., bet. Eighth and Ninth.
may 3d

Madison Ave.

Our friend, L. Weber, on Fourth street, between Main and the river, is prepared to supply families, hotels, saloons, stables, and
invalids and convalescents with linen, and
where in the city with the best Madison Ave.
He sends by express to all points of the com-
try. The physicians highly recommend it.
may 3d

PHILADELPHIA.

as From this date, we sell Alexander's best
black gloves, either black, fancy and parti-colored, or white, at two dollars a pair.
J. WINTER,
Corner of Third and Market.
may 3d

CITY ITEMS.

Spinning Millinery.

The millinery of our city has not been idle
during the past three or four weeks making preparations to supply themselves with large stocks of their class of goods, preparatory to the coming of spring, who seems to be scattering flowers in the pathway of fashion—her favorite child. Inspiring along Fourth street yesterday, our attention was attracted by the tasteful display of samples of the new spring
style of bonnets, hats, etc., in the show-windows of Mrs. A. E. Mayers. Stepping inside her neatly furnished and elegant establishment, we were shown some of the handsomest bonnets, hats, flowers, ribbons and trimmings we have ever seen. The store being crowded with ladies, we did not presume to ask any questions, but we saw enough to satisfy us that Mrs. Mayers' stock of Parisian importations in the millinery line seems to edipise all who have yet sent their compliments to the ladies of our city. One thing she has done, and that is, she has displayed only good taste and sound judgment in her selections. She has imported a stock of millinery which Fashion and Economy have recommended for her, and if the ladies of this city do not find what they desire in the millinery line at Mrs. Mayers' they must be hard to please, and it is no fault of hers. We invite the ladies to call and see her stock.

as We are satisfied that Messrs. Elrod & Bro., on Main street, below Fourth, take a splendid porcelain picture, together with all kinds of photographs, cabinet imperial.
Oculis de vide, etc. They are well versed in the art of photography, and have one of the handsomest suites of rooms in the city. They are a clever young gentlemen, and deserve a very liberal share of patronage.

as Two hundred pieces Irish linen, from 30 yards upwards, at THOS. MSHANE'S,
may 3d 141 Market, 3 doors below Preston.

Mrs. A. E. Porter

Has just opened a wholesale business; she is only retailing her goods at wholesale prices. Go, see, and satisfy yourselves.

TEMPLE OF FASHION,

118 Fourth street.

Removal.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. John W. Hays, which will be found in another column of our paper this morning. It will be seen that he is fully prepared to set grates, mantles and ranges in any style that may be desired. Mr. W. is of the house of Messrs. Elrod & Co., on Jefferson street, below Third, and the goods he has celebrated "Wallace Grates," which have proved themselves universally popular. We commend him to builders and contractors as an advertiser in our paper this morning, and anything he undertakes to do in his line, he is now located on No. 119 Third street, where he will be pleased to see all of his old patrons and as many new ones as may choose to honor him with their patronage.

Mr. W. Hays, May 4th.

Mrs. A. E. Porter will offer ten thousand dollars worth of Store Goods at prices which will defy competition. Untrammelled Hats, twenty-five cents, trimmed one dollar; also,
a large stock of fancy goods, to be sold cheap.
TEMPLE OF FASHION,
118 Fourth street.

Housekeepers' Summer Goods.

Refrigerators, filters, coolers, freezers and a complete assortment of goods for housekeepers' use, all at very low prices. Call and see. THOS. MSHANE'S, 141 Market street, between Fourth and Fifth.

Just Opened.

Our friend, J. C. Wood, No. 118 Market street, between Fourth and Fifth, has an advertisement in our paper this morning, in which we invite the attention of our readers, especially the ladies. Mr. Wood has just opened one of the largest and best stocks
of hosiery, gloves and underwear in the West.
He has been engaged in the business long enough to know what kind of a stock to keep,
and no ladies or customers ever leave his store without the satisfaction of knowing they have got good bargains from a clever gentleman.

Decorated Goods.

Vases, tobacco jars, Motto emblems, and the largest assortment of decorated toilet sets in the city, all at lowest prices. Call and see,
at Rogers' House-furnishing Emporium, 140 south side Market street, between Fourth and Fifth.

Porcelain Pictures are made to perfection

by Elrod & Bro., also, all kinds of photographs, Cabinet Imperial, Cards, etc., plain and colored. No. 131 Main street, first gallery below Fourth. may 3d

See advertisement of portable horse

power steam engine for sale, under appropriate heading.

SHIRTS MADE TO ORDER.

At Walcott & Warner's, 60 Fourth street, west
side. may 3d

Lease of John Cross & Co.'s Store at

on Monday morning, May 4th, 1868, at 10
o'clock, will sell the lease of the storehouse
now occupied by John Cross & Co., on Main
street, between Seventh and Eighth streets,
at public auction, to the highest bidder. Sale
positive and peremptory to close the partnership.
Terms as sale.

SHYMAN P. WHALEY, Auctioneer.

Cheapest Groceries

In the city, at the lowest prices, at Green's stores. Groceries warranted and delivered free.
as Forty-three pieces (yard wide) of red
and white checked mulling, at
may 3d 141 Market, 3 doors below Preston.

Good cloth hats for one dollar; felt hats

for one dollar; fine French hats at four dollars;
new style straw hats at one dollar; year's style
twenty-five per cent. less than cost, at Jas.
M. Laid's, 115 Main street, between Third and Fourth. may 3d

Every body go to Laid's to-day and get

a new hat, and see how modestly we can
sell them; 115 Main street, between Third and Fourth. may 3d

A silk hat for $5.00 at Laid's, 115 Main street, between Third and Fourth. may 3d

A. J. Spurrier,

House and sign painter, 55 Fourth street,
corner of Main. may 3d

Shoes, Shoes.

I have one of the finest and best selections
of ladies' leather and lasting goods on hand;
most of them are of home manufacture, and
first-rate quality, at the liberal prices.
CARL EIDMAN,
No. 116 Grayson st., bet. Eighth and Ninth.
may 3d

Madison Ave.

Our friend, L. Weber, on Fourth street,
between Main and the river, is prepared to
supply families, hotels, saloons, stables, and
invalids and convalescents with linen, and
where in the city with the best Madison Ave.
He sends by express to all points of the com-
try. The physicians highly recommend it.
may 3d

PHILADELPHIA.

as From this date, we sell Alexander's best
black gloves, either black, fancy and parti-
colored, or white, at two dollars a pair.
J. WINTER,
Corner of Third and Market.
may 3d

THE DEMOCRAT AND THE PEOPLE.

Our carriers note an increase for the week ending May 24 of TWO HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-EIGHT additional subscribers. This makes a total increase in six weeks of two thousand, two hundred and eighty-seven.

This is unparalleled in the history of Louisville journalism. It only shows that the Democrat, in its new and cheap form, meets with general acceptance.

Indeed, we see no good reason why it may not go on to increase in the same ratio for many months to come.

RECAPITULATION.

Increase of the Daily Democrat for

the week ending March 29th 603

Increase of the Daily Democrat for

the week ending April 4th 456

Increase for the week ending April

18th 431

Increase for the week ending April

25th 273

Increase for the week ending May

2nd 278

Total increase in six weeks 2,287

as Advertising is to business what a good fertilizer is to the earth; it makes cent. per cent. returns.

Advertise in a paper of universal circulation; a paper which maintains high principles in all things; a paper acceptable alike to good men of all parties and creeds; and such a paper the Democrat is conceded to be by all men whose opinion is worth having.

THE CONVENTION YESTERDAY—OUR

Candidates.

The Democratic district convention that assembled in our city yesterday was composed of an earnest, enthusiastic, working body. But little discussion was had. There were no buncombe speeches made. It assembled for a specific purpose and accomplished its work
speedily and efficiently.

The candidates were selected by acclamation, those heretofore in the field having been graciously and patriotically declined.

For Circuit Judge, Hon. Horatio W. Bruce was chosen. The nominee is a native of Pennsylvania, who has resided in this State since 1853. He was at one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments, but in all the relations of life a pure, honorable, just
and patriotic man.

For District Attorney, Hon. John W. Bower
was chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has resided in this State since 1853. He was at one time Commonwealth's Attorney,
and is not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments, but in all the relations of life a pure,
honorable, just and patriotic man.

For Sheriff, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, honorable, just and patriotic man.

For Coroner, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Recorder, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Assessor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Auditor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Treasurer, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Comptroller, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Surveyor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Assessor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Auditor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Treasurer, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Comptroller, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Surveyor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Assessor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Auditor, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

For Treasurer, Hon. John W. Bower was
chosen. He is a native of Kentucky, and has
resided in this State since 1853. He was at
one time Commonwealth's Attorney, and is
not only a lawyer of fine accomplishments,
but in all the relations of life a pure, hon-
orable, just and patriotic man.

THE ELECTION.

Railroad Tax Triumph—The Dele-

We must congratulate our people upon the very excellent work done yesterday. An unusually large vote, 3,775, was polled for a special election. The proposition to subseribe one million dollars to aid in the construction of the Paducah and Elizabethtown railroad was carried by the unexpected and unprecedented large majority of 2,091. Every ward gave the proposition a majority and only three precincts voted against it. The time for work in order to secure so great and glorious a victory was brief, but in all cases,
so, in this well directed energy have accomplished the gratifying result.

To the able and energetic President of the road, S. B. Thomas, Esq., of Elizabethtown, special credit is due for the triumph. He has been untiring and indefatigable in his efforts. He has given his time, means, talents and personal popularity to achieve an end that will redound so vastly to the interests of Louisville. The road is now certain of construction, and upon this point we can rely and our city soon be linked by another iron bond to the remote counties of the State.

We append the official vote procured
especially for the Democrat:

Wards. For. Against.

First Ward—J. W. Bower, 171; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 316.

Second Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Third Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Fourth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Fifth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Sixth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Seventh Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Eighth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Ninth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Tenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Eleventh Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Twelfth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Thirteenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Fourteenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Fifteenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Sixteenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Seventeenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Eighteenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Nineteenth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Twentieth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Twenty-first Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Twenty-second Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Twenty-third Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J. H. Hughes,
145. Total, 290.

Twenty-fourth Ward—J. W. Bower, 145; J.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

Business Cards will be inserted in this column at the rate of $1 per line per month.

ALL KINDS OF SMOKERS' GOODS at Warner's, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

BECK'S, CHAS. J. Eagle Cigars, Spices and Mustards, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

COMMISSIONER OF DEERS for all the game in the State. Office at Jefferson, Ky. W. R. WILSON.

DEMONSTRATION of the new printing press, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

HOLLINGSWORTH & JOHNSON'S Business Directory, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

HAYES, ROBERT Attorney at Law, Center Street, near Jefferson.

ISBERT, J. A. Dealer in Boots, Shoes, Gaiters, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

JAMES, THOMAS & CO. Successors to F. H. James & Co., 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

KENDRY & IRWIN Coal Dealers, No. 1215 Third Street, between Third and Fourth.

MORTON, JOHN P. Coal Dealers, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

NATIONAL HOTEL Bar, The best liquor, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

QUEENSWAY, J. DOLINGER & CO. No. 1215 Third Street, between Third and Fourth.

ROBERTS, A. G. & SON House-furnishing, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

SLATE ROOFING—ALEXANDER MITCHELL, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

STANCLIFF & ANDERWATHE Architects, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

SPICERS—Ground and Unground, Electric Yeast, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

SPURLOCK & MANVILLE Fine Clothing, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

WALTON & BIRD Importers of China, Glass and Queensware, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

WILSON, PETER & CO. Wholesale Druggists and Proprietors of the Louisville Chemical Works, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

WALKER'S SMOKERS' EMPORIUM—Best brands Cigars and Tobacco, 1215 North Second Street, between Third and Fourth.

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARVEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office—North side Green Street, two doors below the Customhouse.

SUNDAY, MAY 3, 1888.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor, JOHN W. FRYESEN.
For Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, HENRY J. STILES.
For Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, THOS. B. COCHRAN.
For Circuit Judge, HOLMAN W. FRYESEN.
For Commonwealth's Attorney, PHIL. LEE.
For Marshal of the Circuit Court, F. G. WILMAN.
For Clerk of the Circuit Court, THOMAS W. THOMPSON.
For Clerk of the Circuit Court, JOHN S. GAIN.
For Sheriff, JOHN M. MARTIN.
For City and County Attorney, F. HAGAN.

OUR AGENTS.

North and South, next door to P. O., Lexington, Ky.
Wm. L. Jones, next door to P. O., Frankfort, Ky.

MONUMENTS BY THE WAY.

IRISH CHURCH RE-ESTABLISHMENT.

The morning of the first of May, 1888, will be a memorable day in the history of the people of this great nation. On that morning, at about 2 1/2 o'clock, the vote was taken in the House of Commons of the British Parliament, substantially, as to whether the Anglican Church should continue to be maintained in Ireland as a State institution of the British realm, its support coming from a people of whom near eleven-twelfths were of different religious faith and observance. The vote was decisive; a majority of sixty-five deciding as the will of the House of Commons, that the maintenance of a Church by State authority for three centuries, in opposition to the religious habits and instincts of a people, is not in accordance with the spirit of the age or with the best interests of government, and must be discontinued. Such is the essential character of what must be considered the decision of the British Government. For, even if the contest should be protracted over details and questions of policy as to property or the retention of office, the event is one of that nature which must go forward and take no step backward. It must be distinctly remembered that this movement is an incisive, a determinative event in British history. It is not checked by its full accomplishment must be checked by an intelligent regard for the immense complications of the arrangements for the completeness of the step. The ecclesiastical has been as much one of the "estates" of the realm as the House of Lords, ever since British civilization has had a history. This movement shakes it from that basis; for if the Government severs the connection in reference to Ireland, which it has constituted an integral part of the United Kingdom, a total disassociation of Church and State becomes, in process of a comparatively little time, inevitable. The question is already up, and is broadly stated by Mr. Gladstone in the closing debate of the morning of the first, that the Church of England would lose none of her strength if parted from the State.

Other questions have to be settled; such as those concerning consolidation of property, the rights of corporations, &c., but these are revolutionary in their nature and must be handled with delicacy and the highest ability to prevent convulsion. As the House adjourned over till Monday, on to-morrow morning the position of the ministry must be made known. Mr. Disraeli has "gone to Osborne to consult the Queen." It is not probable that he has any intention, and he has disavowed having any, of influencing the Crown adversely to the will of the House of Commons, a collision between the two would be a revolution in the history of the country. The death of the aspirant to the hand of the widowed Queen of England, the descendant of Solomon, the King of Abyssinia, was highly dramatic! He seemed to be the vassal of the court with whose noble queen he had (poetically) sought an alliance! And so the British forces sealed the walls of his fortress, he sent his own proud spirit to regions eternal!

Who can help a little thrill of sympathy and admiration for that royal African King! His forces were but as almost specks before the trained legions of Napier! The amount of fighting was absurdly small; and when the haughty Theodoros discovered the actual diminutiveness of his pretensions, he prepared to join his God rather than tarry in a world in which the impotence of his majesty was exposed! It might be well if other aspirants, in other lands, would imitate his example.

But Theodoros is gone, and his memory will live in history, in poetry and in song. There is a mythical charm about such acts and such dramas when enacted in far-off lands about which the world knows little! How quickly did that Prince of Romance, Disraeli, essay to take advantage of that emotion, in order to secure some adventurous support to himself, as the shadow of a fading specter sweeps the field of his vision! But in his enthusiastic exultation over the triumph of British arms, he allowed the necessary dramatic effect to supplant his heroic recollections. He compared the march of Napier to that of Cortez, but Napier reached the capital of his royal adversary to find that he had proudly taken his own life! Cortez was guilty of the treacherous "killing-off" of the proud but gentle Montezuma! Disraeli might have made a much more singularly apposite comparison of the consequences of the reduction of Abyssinia, to those of the French lately in Mexico. The British forces, we are now told, incontinently withdrew from that country, having broken down a government, to leave the people, as the French left the Mexicans, a prey to worse anarchy than ever before! The advantage is on the side of the French! The American Government was responsible for the step not in the interest of civilization; the British Government is alone responsible for its own sudden determination.

But good-by, Theodoros! Thy spirit had it in such a dash of chivalry, that we wish thee well in the Spirit Land!

PRINCE ALFRED IN AUSTRALIA.

The attempted assassination of Prince Alfred in Australia created a profound sensation, not only in England, but throughout the world. This effect was owing not only to the fact of an attempt upon the life of one of royal blood, or one conspicuous in any way before the world. This is an impression to which the public ear has got accustomed from the frequency of such attempts all over the world. Neither would the effect have been so striking or continued if the special position of Prince Alfred were considered. It would only have been considered a transient surprise at the folly of attempting the life of but a polking young man, not heir to the throne; and if he had been and the attempt upon his life had been a success it would not have interfered an hour with the permanence or power of that throne.

THE CHIEF OCCASION OF ITS MARK WAS ITS (PRESUMED OR KNOWN) "FONIAN" ORIGIN.

It followed so quickly the atrocious murder of Dr. Arey McGee, that the public mind attached to the same silent and foolish source. No one can deny that the organization is responsible for such acts; for they must retard instead of promote its purposes and prospects. And in fact those acts have been of detriment to that association. It causes the thoughtful and the brave in all lands to regard it with suspicion and distrust; not intrinsically, but because of the abnormal excitement which it seems liable to beget in an excitable race. Fighting for national liberty is one thing, but blowing up prisons with gunpowder, stealthily dogging the footsteps at midnight and killing a member of Parliament, are quite another thing, and the cause they affect to advance. Nevertheless the attempt has been one of the monuments by the roadside of passing time.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN AND OUT OF IRELAND.

The Prince of Wales and his beautiful wife, have had a magnificent reception in Ireland. It was of such distinguished mark as to stimulate confidence in the growth of Irish "loyalty" as rapidly as causes of disaffection should be diminished. The visit of the Prince, it is naturally supposed, was intended to be considered demonstrative of a growing disposition to supplant the links of force, which have hitherto bound Ireland to England, by those of kindness. And the reception seemed to breathe a perfume of peace and amicable olive-branch! Or such was the political significance of the visit and the reception. It had been to Ireland; boded well to England! The sudden departure of the Prince of Wales interrupted the current of feeling, as well as the current of thought. The Prince was in the midst of his visit to Ireland when the news of the attempted assassination of Alfred in Sydney reached him, and he immediately returned to England! Had Alfred been killed, the courtesies of paternal affection would have been an all-complete explanation. But Alfred was returning alive and recovering from his wounds! Why then did the heir to the throne of England retire so precipitately? And we must be satisfied that the Prince of Wales has not the spirit of our noble Theodoros, which has been feelingly chronicled above. Can it be possible that Albert saw a "Fenian" in every bush, and, haunted by the specters of Ireland, incontinently skedaddled! Albert! Albert! Look upon Theodoros and copy hereafter the sublime heroism of him who might have been your second father, if Victoria had only said, "I will!" You might have earned the blessed reputation of the celebrated lady of whom Moore sings:

"And blessed forever was she who relied On Erin's honor and Erin's pride."

Distric Democratic Convention.

The undersigned, chairman of the several judicial districts of Kentucky, hereby call a convention, to be held at Lebanon on Thursday, May 11, 1888, to nominate a candidate for Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney for the judicial district of the counties not having held meetings are requested to do so and send forward their delegates.

JAS. M. FOGLE,
PHIL. R. THOMPSON, JR.,
J. H. BROWNFIELD,
Wm. JOHNSON,
THOS. H. HANES.

#2 Manager Maguire lost some $3000 on his Japs.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

The Convention—Harmonious Action—Hon. H. W. Bruce for Judge and Col. Phil. Lee for Commonwealth's Attorney.

Yesterday delegates of the Democratic party for the counties of Oldham, Shelby, Spencer, Bullitt, Jefferson and the city of Louisville, comprising the Seventh Judicial district, assembled in the courthouse in this city for the purpose of nominating candidates for Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney. There was a full representation from each of the counties, embracing some of the ablest men of the district.

John Barber, Esq., of Louisville, called the meeting to order, and moved that the appointment of the Hon. Robert Mallory, our former distinguished member of Congress, as president. The appearance of Mr. Mallory was greeted with hearty applause.

Upon assuming the chair, he returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

Mr. Mallory, in his address, returned his thanks for being called upon to preside over the deliberations of the body. He did not regard it as a political meeting, and it ought not to partake of that character. Now, if ever, in the history of the country, we should strive to separate politics from the judicial. The spectacle at Washington, where all the engines of unscrupulous Radicalism were heaped together to influence the highest court known to the Constitution, should teach every people a warning lesson. He hoped that a candidate for Circuit Judge would be selected, not on account of his political antecedents, but on account of his wisdom, honesty and justice. The choice should be made with especial reference to these qualifications.

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

